

Call for participants for training

“Perform your identity in a changing Europe”

October, 16th – 23rd

Serbia

DESCRIPTION

The aim of the training is to empower youth workers and young people (especially those that comes from sensitive groups) from Croatia, Estonia, Greece, Italy, Ireland, North Macedonia, Slovenia and Serbia to examine their attitude toward constantly changing European context, using performance art as the way of expression. Also, the project will focus hybrid-identities that we develop in the changing context.

Specific goals are to enable young people and youth workers:

- to accelerate their understanding of the broader socioeconomic landscape of Europe,
- to increase sensitivity toward minorities and intercultural learning,
- to explore connections between personal, national and meta-national identity,
- to express their opinions about identity, minorities, European values, heritage, positions of power... through performance art,
- to become equipped to use performance art as a tool for social awareness campaigns.
